

Degenstein Labs Whitepaper

Introduction

Dr. Degenstein ($DRDGN) is the ultimate creation from Degenstein Labs. Following the rise of $DGN and $SUCK, the Lab's mad scientist brings innovation, community energy, and meme-fueled chaos into one powerful token.

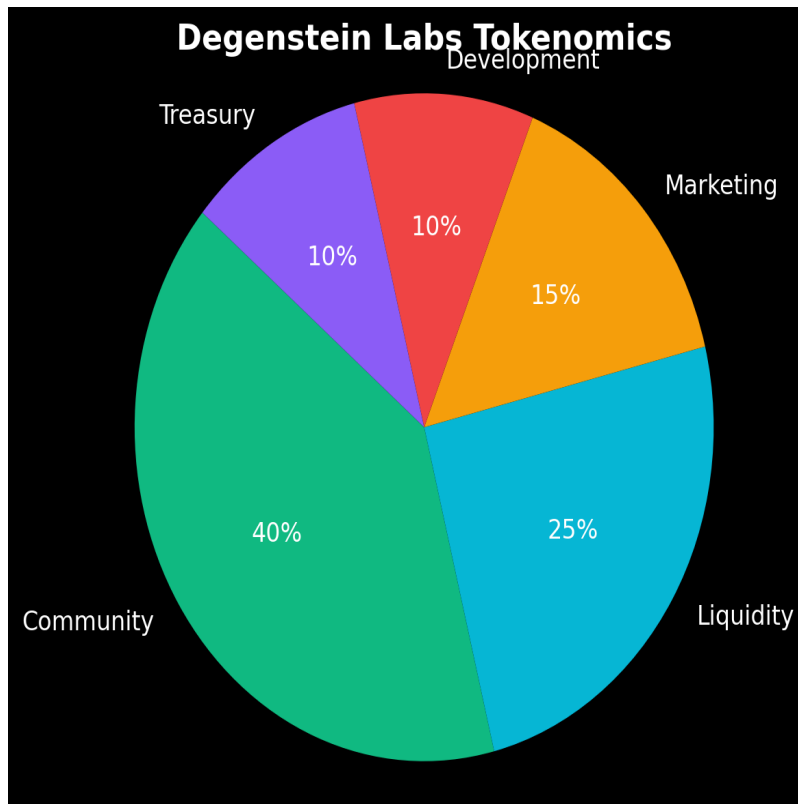

The Lore

In the shadows of the blockchain, where experiments often go too far, Dr. Degenstein emerged. A brilliant but unpredictable scientist, she is the force behind Degenstein Labs. Every token is an experiment, every community member part of the Army.

Tokenomics

Degenstein Labs tokens follow a unified structure designed for growth, sustainability, and community empowerment. The allocations are as follows:

- 40% Community: rewards, giveaways, and growth
- 25% Liquidity: ensuring stable trading
- 15% Marketing: fueling hype and outreach
- 10% Development: new experiments & innovation
- 10% Treasury: long-term sustainability

Roadmap

Phase 1: Creation – Launch of $DGN, $SUCK, and $DRDGN. Community + website established.

Phase 2: Growth – Listings on Pump.fun, Solscan, and trackers. Raids and social hype.

Phase 3: Expansion – NFT drops (Degenstein 666), collabs, FreshCoins integration.

Phase 4: The Lab Awakens – Unified Degenstein Labs ecosystem, staking, governance.

Community

The Degenstein Army is the backbone of every experiment. Through Telegram, X, Facebook, and beyond, the Lab grows stronger every day. From raids to meme contests, the Army spreads the word and builds the legend.

Disclaimer

The tokens featured ($DGN, $SUCK, $DRDGN) are community-driven meme coins. They do not represent regulated financial instruments or securities. Participation in this ecosystem carries risk, and all holders are responsible for conducting their own research (DYOR).
